

Once primarily residential, the SO|ME District of South Meridian is now transforming into a vibrant destination for events, community connection shopping, dining, and more. With exciting new developments, the SO|ME District is the ideal place to live, work, and play—and the Pinnacle community is at the heart of it all.

The Rise of New Businesses in SO|ME

The SO|ME District is buzzing with activity, thanks to new businesses popping up last year with even more planned in 2025. From an outdoor market, to new local eateries, these additions are creating a walkable, dynamic area where residents and visitors alike can explore and enjoy. Whether you're in search of a delicious meal, a one-of-a-kind gift, or convenient services, the SO|ME District has something for everyone.

For a list of some of these businesses and services, check out the directory here: SO|ME District Directory.

A Community Resource: The Meridian Library at Pinnacle

Libraries are often the heart of the communities they serve, and the new Meridian Library branch at Pinnacle is no exception. This state-of-the-art facility offers a wide range of features, including a large children's area, a dedicated teen space, a cozy reading nook complete with a fireplace, and an event space available for booking. Add in the educational resources and family-friendly programming, and it's clear why this library is a new favorite among locals.

Its close proximity to Pinnacle makes it an invaluable resource for residents. To learn more about the library's hours and upcoming events, visit their page here: Meridian Library at Pinnacle.

Big News: The Amphitheater Opening June 2025

The SO|ME Amphitheater at Pinnacle is set to become a cornerstone of entertainment and culture in South Meridian. With its grand opening scheduled for June 2025, this venue promises to be a game-changer for the area.

Brighton will host a variety of events at the amphitheater, including concerts, movie nights, and festivals. Additionally, the space will be available for private bookings and third-party public events. When not in use for scheduled activities, the amphitheater will serve as a park-like space, perfect for picnics, outdoor play, and more—making it a wonderful amenity for Pinnacle residents and SO|ME patrons alike.

SO|ME Market at Pinnacle: Second Season Kicking Off in April

The SO|ME Market is returning for its second season in April, and it's bigger and better than ever. Running from April to October, the market will now take place on the 2nd and 4th Wednesday of each month, doubling the opportunities to shop, eat, and connect. Following the success of the 2024 Holiday Market, plans are already in motion to include a festive event in 2025.

The market features an incredible selection of local produce, baked goods, handcrafted items from artisans, food trucks, live music, and family-friendly activities. It's the perfect spot to support small businesses and build connections within the community. For more information about the market, visit: SO|ME Market.

The SO|ME District is a shining example of what makes South Meridian such a fantastic place to live. From community resources like the library and the amphitheater, plus the seasonal market, and new shops and services popping up all the time, SO|ME District offers something for everyone. And living in Pinnacle means enjoying all these amenities and more, right outside your door.

Want to learn more about living in Pinnacle? Visit the community page or contact Janita McWhite.