

The fall season brings a fresh crop of fun family events for people who make their homes in Boise ID. Whether you want to be entertained, frightened or enlightened, there's a nearby activity for you!

Emmett Harvest Festival and Street Fair

Sept. 24 & 25

Emmett ID

Celebrate local rural life and the harvest season by heading out to this festival to enjoy artisan craft booths, food, music and a scarecrow contest. While you're there, pick up a map of local orchards where you can take tours and pick fresh fruit straight from the farm!

Low Family Farmstead Corn Maze

Mid-September through October 30

Kuna ID

Get lost in the 18-acre corn maze, go on a hayride, pick pumpkins and enjoy food around a fire pit. Kids will enjoy their own mini corn maze plus pig races, pony rides and goodies shot from a candy cannon.

Idaho Botanical Gardens Fall Harvest at the Garden

Saturdays in October

Boise

Visit the beautiful botanical gardens for live music, food trucks, an artists' market and the Scarecrow Stroll. You'll find something different each week, so may want to go back more than once to see it all.

Old Idaho Penitentiary Sweet Escape

Wed. Oct. 27

Boise

All ages are welcome at this evening event exploring the former prison, built in the early 1870s. Highlights include treat bags, decorated cells and history presentations.

These events are just a taste of the fun things you can do each fall when you live in the Cartwright Ranch community in Boise ID. Cartwright Ranch offers brand new energy-efficient homes in modern farmhouse and urban designs. The spacious floor plans are ideal for family living with flex spaces for learning, working or playing at home. Lots are available in a range of sizes to suit everyone from those who want minimal yard work to families who need space for kids and dogs to play. An elementary school and town center are within the development.

Cartwright Ranch is set among scenic surroundings with 810 acres of open space in the Boise foothills. Amenities include walking trails, a swimming pool, gym and fitness room.

Call Jamie Nosek at Fathom Realty today at 208-917-4870 to schedule a tour of the Cartwright Ranch community of homes in Boise ID.